

SwissLegal Lardi & Partner AG

Attorney-at-Law

80-100%

Start date: immediate or by agreement

Our firm is a law and notary practice with a strong focus on contract and corporate law, family law, inheritance law, and property law, as well as construction and environmental law and criminal law. We act both in litigation and advisory matters and serve an international clientele.

We offer...

In our historic and centrally located offices in Chur, we offer a diverse and interdisciplinary role within a collegial environment, including direct client interaction.

You will have the opportunity to work on complex and demanding matters as part of a well-established and experienced team, while also taking on individual responsibility in handling cases.

We place great importance on continuing education and individual career development. Accordingly, we support our employees' personal needs and promote flexible working arrangements. We also offer competitive, performance-based compensation, as well as the long-term prospect of becoming a partner in our firm.

What you bring...

you hold an excellent law degree, have been admitted to the bar, and preferably have several years of professional experience in private practice and/or in the courts.

You have a strong interest in procedural law and demonstrate motivation, enthusiasm, and a solution-oriented mindset in serving our international clientele.

You have a confident demeanor, enjoy working with clients, and are accustomed to working independently. You are proactive, goal-oriented, team-minded, flexible, and committed. Providing collegial support and coverage during absences is a given for you. Fluent German is required; knowledge of Italian and English is an asset.

We look forward to receiving your complete application in digital form, addressed to Attorney MLaw Lukas Pinggera at pinggera@swisslegal.ch.
He will also be happy to assist you with any questions or further information.
