

SwissLegal (Zürich) AG

Two Attorneys-at-Law (80–100%)

With immediate effect or by mutual agreement

To strengthen our team, we are looking for, with immediate effect or by mutual agreement, an attorney-at-law specialising in construction and real estate law (including public law) and litigation, as well as an attorney-at-law specialising in corporate law, M&A and contract law.

- Independent responsibility for sophisticated mandates within your area of expertise
 - Individual support for your professional and personal development, including continuing education
 - Diverse mandates and projects for clients ranging from SMEs and private individuals to large corporate groups, both in Switzerland and internationally
 - Attractive compensation model
 - An experienced team that will support your professional and personal development
 - Flat hierarchies and straightforward collaboration
 - Responsibility and the opportunity to actively contribute to the further development of our firm's philosophy and culture
- Admission to the Swiss Bar and approximately three to five years of professional experience with a law firm
 - Excellent academic credentials
 - Strong commercial awareness and an interest in business-related matters
 - Team spirit and an entrepreneurial mindset
 - Good command of English

We look forward to receiving your complete application documents electronically and will be pleased to answer any questions you may have.
